

i support xm because wherever i am i have acces to the weather and road conditions within my own vechicle. seeing how we the consumer pay for the service i don't feel you have the right to take this from us. i never have to worry about interference or a station not comming in. xm is not only uninterrupted music it is also a help to all while out on the road.